

WE CAN DO MORE
TOGETHER

“There are no ordinary people. You have never talked to a mere mortal. Nations, cultures, civilizations – these are mortal, and their life is to ours as the life of a gnat. But it is immortals whom we joke with, work with, marry, snub and exploit – immortal horrors or everlasting splendors. This does not mean that we are to be perpetually solemn. We must play. But our merriment must be of that kind which exists between people who have, from the outset, taken each other seriously – no flippancy, no superiority, not presumption.”

- C.S. Lewis (The Weight of Glory)

WE CAN DO MORE TOGETHER

“When Jesus again entered Capernaum, the people heard that He had come home. They gathered in such large numbers that there was no room left, not even outside the door, and He preached the word to them. Some men came, bringing to Him a paralyzed man, carried by four of them. Since they could not get Him to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof above Jesus by digging through it and then lowered the mat the man was lying on.”

Mark 2:1-4

WE CAN DO MORE TOGETHER

“When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralyzed man, ‘Son, your sins are forgiven.’”

Mark 2:5
