

An aerial, isometric illustration of a suburban neighborhood. The scene shows several two-story houses with grey roofs and light-colored siding, arranged in a grid-like pattern. Each house has a green lawn, a driveway, and a sidewalk. There are various trees, including tall evergreens and shorter deciduous trees in shades of green and purple. The streets are grey and paved. A large, blue, wavy-edged speech bubble is superimposed over the center of the image, containing the text "WON'T YOU BE MY NEIGHBOR?".

WON'T YOU BE MY NEIGHBOR?

WON'T YOU BE MY NEIGHBOR?

Therefore be alert and of sober mind so that you may pray.

Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ."

1 Peter 4:7-11

WON'T YOU BE MY NEIGHBOR?

An aerial, isometric illustration of a suburban neighborhood. The scene shows several two-story houses with grey roofs and white walls, each with a green lawn and a driveway. The houses are arranged in a grid-like pattern, separated by grey streets. There are various types of trees, including tall evergreens and shorter deciduous trees in shades of green and pink. The overall style is clean and modern, with a soft, pastel color palette.

Love One Another

“All believers were together and had everything in common. They sold property and possession to give to anyone who had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.”
